THE TOWLES FAMILY.

For the data used in compiling this genealogy obligation is chiefly due to Mr W. A. Towles, of Henderson, Ky., who has been an interested student of the family history and has collected much material. The account here given of the first two or three generations is partly tentative; but the facts can doubtless be more clearly ascertained from a minute examination of the records of Accomac, Lancaster and Middlesex counties.

According to a memorandum among some old family papers, the immigrant ancestor was Henry Towles, who came from Liverpool to Accomac county and married Anne Stokely (a member of a family settled at an early date on the Eastern Shore of Virginia).

1. HENRY¹ and ANN (STOKELEY) TOWLES had issue (according to an entry in an old prayer-book, which is not contemporary; but which there is every reason to believe is derived from an authoritative source):

2. Henry,² Jr., born 1670; and (most probably), 3. Stokeley,³ of Middlesex county, who, as his eldest child, named in the Christ Church (Middlesex) Register, was born in 1716, was probably born about 1695. A Henry Towles, believed to have been Henry² Towles, Jr., died in Lancaster in 1734, naming in his will an only son Stokeley; but as this Stokeley, son of Henry (of 1734), was born in 1711, he could not have
